

MRS. MAGGIE BOYD

Mrs. Maggie Boyd, whose survivors include 11 children and 84 grandchildren and great-grandchildren, died at 12:56 p.m. Saturday at her Commerce home, 311 North Vine street, after a two-month illness. Born at Peoria in Indian Territory, she resided for 39 years in the state of Washington before returning to this area in 1941.

Mrs. Boyd is survived by her husband, Sam Boyd, of the home; seven daughters, Mrs. Hazel Faye, Concrete, Wash.; Mrs. Juanita Michael, Caldwell, Wash.; Mrs. Beulah Friedlander, Nestead, Wash.; Mrs. Pearl LeRoche, Anacortes, Wash.; Mrs. Alice Larmer, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Melva Johnson, Medical Lake, Wash.; and Mrs. Lila Dossort, Spokane, Wash.; four sons, Norman Boyd, Keller, Wash.; Ernest Boyd, Mineral, Wash.; Basil Boyd, Commerce, and Keith Boyd, Joplin, and a half-brother, Wilson Stand, Quapaw.

The body was received by the Jim Thomas Funeral home, Commerce.

Maggie Maggie Boyd Obituary

Clipped By:

gda4251

Thu, Apr 9, 2015